

Applications

PACKAGING APPL CAT ON STATIC APPLICATION IN PACKAGING MACHINE

In packaging machines while rolled film is unwrapped, static charge occurs because of decomposition. This static charge causes film to stick to the metal parts or itself so leads to incorrect and lossy production.

For preventing this situation, anti-static bar should be placed on sections in which roll is opened and packaging begins for neutralizing static charge. Machine will execute more reliable and efficient packaging in these conditions.